PG is additional year of high school... uncheck the box!

What does this mean??

be consistent in usage of & vs. and

President, Water Solutions & Student Affairs, Maji Wells [Tanzania and United States] & Project FUEL [India]
Deployed 10 water harvesting units; saved 7 hrs/day of walking for 5K Maasai; Intl. Next Gen Young Voices, UN SDG Award; Intl. Melvin Jones Award

This is tricky - your description takes up a lot of space which means you have to use abbreviations for your awards. Your effort is a valiant one to be sure, still... that's cluttered and hard to decipher... I might reword for clarity

Researcher, "Maasai Water Units Impact", Maji Wells [Tanzania and United States] & Project FUEL [India]
Did 40 interviews; 2X school enrollment; 3X more economic activity; reduced sickness; In peer review in NHSJS; Speaker Africa MDCON23 w/600+ audience see above... there are too many abbreviations that require a lot of effort on the reader's part. You've told me a lot about your project and I'm struggling to decipher things! Did the 40 interviews double school enrollment? would people know that NHSJS? or MDCON23?

Researcher, Remote Sensing & AI, Independent Project
AI+satellite imagery for mapping population of 50K Maasai to deploy 100+ water units; Present @ Univ. of Exeter, UK [ML4EO'24]; Peer review at NHSJS

Also... confusing to me... and likely the admission officer!

Hardware Captain, Robotics Team
Built one robot in '23. Lead all 3 robots to State level in '24. Mentoring 3 freshmen. Built a robot in 48 hours that was a Regionals finalist.

3x "robot" in two lines of text... I think you could make that discription a little more crisp. consider leading with your biggest accomplishment rather than building towards it. I find that reverse chronological order more impactful...
